   Grand Tam-tam (very deep)
13. Fouet (Slapstick)
   Triangle
   Grelots (Sleigh Bells)
   Piano G)

A) A mallet in each hand.

B) A mallet in each hand; use very elastic strokes; even in the ff, the combined weight of arm and mallet are sufficient; do not kill the tone.

C) Skin, felt, sponge or wooden sticks are to be used strictly as indicated.

R
   The notation indicates rim shot.

X

D) Sirens: Sterling Type H (Part No. 73 PU. PB.) hand operated with thumb brake. If unobtainable, substitute with theremin instruments. Mouth sirens are to be strictly avoided.

E) Tarole: A flat military high pitched drum with snares.

F) Cencerro: A cow bell with handle and no clapper: it is struck with drum stick and muffled by inserting a piece of soft material in the bell.

G) The symbol indicates all chromatic intervals between the two notes and must be played simultaneously making use of the forearm. The chord is to be played without stiffness and without brutality.

Footnote: With brake equipment.

Footnote: Indentations in holder must be lined with soft felt to obtain maximum of resonance. To obtain resonance hit both tubes simultaneously with beater (small piece of tubing) held by the middle. Damping is obtained in the same fashion but keeping the contact with the two tubes.
ANALYSIS
by Nicolas Slonimsky

Bars 1-8. Introduction. A characteristic figure is sounded by two Bass Drums (laid flat). The Sirens, one high, the other low, enter in rotation, starting from \textit{ppp}, swelling to \textit{mp}. The String-Drum enters in the seventh bar, starting a tremendous crescendo of the Metal Group (Gongs, Tam-tams, Cymbals, Triangle). The crescendo ends abruptly giving way to

The First Subject. Bars 9-12 \textbf{1} (with an upbeat). The Tambour Militaire gives out the theme, accompanied by twin Bongos (the Bongos figure may be considered a Countersubject).

Bars 13-16 \textbf{2} are bars 1-4 with slight modifications. Bar 17 equals bar 9.

Bars 18-20 \textbf{3}. Episode. The Tarole, alternating with the Chinese Blocks, gives out a figure partly derived from the Subject.

Bars 21-26 \textbf{4} & \textbf{5}. The first Subject is repeated for two bars, continuing in a new figure in Bar 23. The Bongos enter in strict imitation of the Subject, continuing in free counterpoint. The Tarole repeats its episodic figure.

Bar 27 (compound, 2/4 plus 3/8), after a Codetta played by the Chinese Blocks, leads to two 4/4 bars (28 and 29) with thematic figures of the Tambour Militaire. A syncopated Codetta in a 3/8 bar for Claves, leads to the return of 4/4 time (Bar 31). There is a Codetta for the Chinese Blocks in the following 5/4 bar, where the quintuple figure of the second Subject is anticipated.

Bar 45 in 5/8. A Codetta for the Chinese Blocks leads to the second Subject.

Bars 51-55 \textbf{9} 4/4. All-metal in \textit{p, mf} and \textit{f} in various instruments (Anvils, Cymbals, Gongs, Tam-tams, Triangle, accompanied by Sirens). Bars 56-65 \textbf{10} & \textbf{11} introduce thematic bits in the entire orchestra, leading to an all-metal crash on a fermata in Bar 65.

Bar 66 \textbf{12}, in 5/4 — another outburst of sound; Bar 67, in 4/4, Pianissimo; Bar 68, in 5/4 repeats Bar 66 with some changes in orchestration.

Bars 69-72 in 4/4. The first Subject reappears in the Tambour Militaire. But instead of the original figure of Bar 9, the Bongos use for counterpoint the figure of the Tambour Militaire in Bar 23.

Bar 73, in 5/4, recalls the second Subject, in two figures of quintuple sixteenth notes. Bar 74, in 3/4, leads through a tremendous crescendo, to Coda.

Bars 75-91 \textbf{13}.

Bars 75-79. Time-signature 4/4. Instruments of definite pitch (Piano, Bells and Glockenspiel à Clavier) enter. The first Subject is re-stated by the Tambour Militaire. Bar 80, in 2/4, contains a Codetta for Chinese Blocks. Bars 81-82, in 3/4, have a solo for the Tarole. Bars 83-91 repeat thematic bits of the first Subject. The conclusion is in pianissimo, on a long fermata.
